

FISCAL NOTE

HB 3664 - SB 3771

March 19, 2006

SUMMARY OF BILL: Exempts marriage license applicants in Jonesborough, TN from paying $60 of a $62.50 marriage license fee.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Decrease State Revenues - $19,000/Administrative Office of the Courts
Department of Children's Services
Office of Criminal Justice Programs
Department of Education

Other Fiscal Impact - Decrease Revenues - $15,000/TN Disability Coalition
TN Court Appointed Special Advocates Association
TN Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers

Assumptions:

- In 2005, the Washington County Clerk office provided marriage licenses for 574 couples who did not attend a counseling session resulting in an estimated total decrease in state revenues of $34,440.
- The $60 fee is allocated as follows: $7 to the Administrative Offices of the Courts, $15 to the Department of Children's Services, $7.50 to the Office of Criminal Justice Programs, $4 to the Department of Education, $20.50 to the Tennessee Disability Coalition, $3 to the Tennessee Court Appointed Special Advocates Association, and $3 to the Tennessee Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers.
- There would be a decrease to revenues as follows: $4,018 to the Administrative Offices of the Courts, $8,610 to the Department of Children's Services, $4,305 to the Office of Criminal Justice Programs, $2,296 to the Department of Education, $11,767 to the Tennessee Disability Coalition, $1,722 to the Tennessee Court Appointed Special Advocates Association, and $1,722 to the Tennessee Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers.

CERTIFICATION:

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

James W. White, Executive Director